

STAY CONNECTED!

“Connections Radio” Launches July 6, 2010 on Spirit Media Network

Our world is crying out for oneness. Abuses such as fouling our waters and Gulf Coast states with oil, a financial system that is being used for personal gain rather than societal improvement, or disrespecting people because of their gender, race or lifestyle choices can only happen when people lose sight of our connection to everything around us. “Connections Radio: Awakening Oneness Within Us All” (www.spiritmedianetwork.com/crs.htm) is the antidote to the separateness plaguing our lives.

Cynthia James (www.cynthiames.net) and Dr. Jordan Paul (www.drjordanpaul.com), co-hosts of this exciting weekly international internet radio variety talk show, are on a mission to inspire greater oneness both within us and in our world, while providing practical ideas that encourage this process.

The show features prominent cutting edge thinkers, business leaders, celebrities and humanitarians sharing their wisdom and practical experiences for living more connected lives. Just a few of the stimulating future guests include: Yakov Smirnov, a comedian with a transformational message, Barbara Marx Hubbard, futurist and founder of the Foundation for Conscious Evolution, Dr.

Michael Bernard Beckwith, founder and spiritual leader of The Agape Spiritual Center, and Andrew Harvey, distinguished mystical scholar and author of The Hope: A guide to sacred activism.

Connections Radio also honors lesser-known Everyday Heroes who are dedicated to creating a more harmonious and peaceful planet. This segment provides listeners with profound opportunities to discover and get involved with grass-roots initiatives that are making a difference today and for future generations.

On July 6, the power packed inaugural show features Neale Donald Walsch, author of Conversations With God. Walsch discusses the idea that rather than trying to legislate the Ten Commandments, we must think of them as Moses intended, as Ten Commitments that flow naturally when we are connected to Spirit. Our “Everyday Hero” is Steve Farrell, Worldwide Coordinating Director of Humanity’s Team.

On July 13, Rev. Dr. Roger Teel, Sr. Minister at Mile Hi Church in Lakewood, CO integrates practical spirituality into a powerful message that guides us toward Spiritual Leadership, leading from our hearts as well as our heads in every area of our lives. Our “Everyday Hero” is James Armstrong, CEO of Spirit Media Network.

The July 20 show features Lindsay Wagner whose life as an actress, mother, humanitarian, author, and workshop facilitator is united by her passion and commitment to advancing human potential. Travel with Wagner on her healing journey as she shares the transcending challenges that led to changing her thinking and her life. Our “Everyday Hero” is Anna Rutins, Director of Program Development at Journey’s in Film.

On July 27, Dr. Noel Brown, former Director of the United Nations Environment Program and an environmental diplomat and teacher shares how and why the environment is our greatest teacher. He calls on all of us to take responsibility for our planet and weigh the consequences of our actions. Our “Everyday Hero” is Dr. David Randle, President of the WHALE Center.
